Mr. Donald Gregg
Assistant to the Vice President for National Security Affairs
Old Executive Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20506

Dear Mr. Gregg:

Thank you for accepting the invitation to address the Career Trainee Development Course, the Agency's orientation course for junior professionals. The 28 students in this class are destined for various assignments with almost half going into operations.

We have provisionally entitled your talk "CIA Goals and Values," and envision it as a bridge between the Career Trainees' orientation course and their careers with the Agency. They will go to their first provisional assignment on the Monday following your talk. You may want to comment on such things as the Agency's culture, how it got to be the organization it is, the political forces that have modified its direction, what its values are, and what Career Trainees have to look forward to as Agency professionals.

Your presentation is scheduled for Friday, 22 March 1985, from 1300-1430 hours in Room 912, Chamber of Commerce Building. Someone from our staff will greet you at the second floor receptionist area when you arrive. Should you need parking, we have reserved spaces 54W and 55W in the student lot adjacent to the building.

We look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Director
of Training and Education
